

COLORADO LIONS CAMP

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Hello and Happy November! I hope that you all have been enjoying the wonderful fall weather we have been having. As I wait for the “typical” fall weather, I am reminded to slow down and appreciate the now. That all periods of time, in season and in life, are a part of the journey. At times, this gets lost on me; planning next summer while still coming off this past one, looking ahead to respites months from now, and those simple moments of waiting for the clock to pass. Enjoying and appreciating all the parts that the seasons have to offer is a part of the journey. Soon, we will have snowman and snowball fights at respite, and then shortly after, we will be swimming and playing kickball. Appreciating the now of each season is so important, and I hope that you all will join me in loving the small moments of each of them.

With Peace and Love,
Erin Newport
